14 MARCH 2011 -- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Asia Pacific Engineering Consulting Services, LLC (APECS) is pleased to announce our partnership with TEAM NINE MOTORSPORTS through our wholly-owned subsidiary, APECS MOTORSPORTS, for the sponsorship of the number 9 racecar driven by Connor Cantrell, the 2009 runner-up in the NASCAR King Taco Super Truck Racing Series.

Connor has been racing since he was 8 years old and has been successful in the Legend Series as well as being the youngest ever race winner at Irwindale at the age of 14. In 2005 he was the Irwindale Rookie of the Year and finished 3rd in the points standings. Every year since he has found success in racing and will be returning to Irwindale in 2011 to challenge for the Championship.

Team Nine Motorsports is owned by Larry Vannix and Jeff Latimer and supported by a broad group of racing enthusiasts. The team will be racing at the Toyota Speedway in Irwindale in the NASCAR King Taco Super Truck Racing Series.

APECS Motorsports will sponsor Connor for the entire 2011 racing season with options for additional seasons. >>END
